HANDLE Introductory Courses Levels 1 and 2 combined

October 23-24th, Bundaberg, QLD

October 27-28th, Maryborough, QLD

- This course introduces an interactive approach for identifying and treating the root cause of problems across the life-span. It focuses on what causes learning and social difficulties and many other behavioural challenges.
- Participants see themselves and others through new eyes, and leave with tools to apply to many situations.
- Participants then can apply the practical tools and knowledge to school, work and life situations.

See the Course Information Pack and registration form for more details.
