

HANDLE® Introductory Course (Level 1)

October 4, Greenwood, Nova Scotia

This course introduces the late Judith Bluestone's extraordinary insights into neurodevelopmental differences, and how her work led to international multiple awards. Families, educators and health professionals can immediately apply their new HANDLE knowledge at home, work and in their educational settings.

ADD / ADHD

Dyslexia

Dyscalculia

Autism

Selective Mutism

Memory

Perplexing Behaviours

Social Interaction Issues

Cerebral Palsy

Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders

Tourette's Syndrome

... And many more

HANDLE

www.uniquelearning.ca

Gets beyond the labels

Is a holistic, non-drug approach

Assists the brain to create efficient pathways

Includes movement

Is non-judgmental

Honors Gentle Enhancement®

Nancy Ceulemans is one of only 8 HANDLE professionals in Canada. She moved from Switzerland to Nova Scotia five years ago and now has a private practice in the Halifax area. In affiliation with the HANDLE Institute, Nancy gives talks, teaches workshops and courses and works with clients in the Maritime Provinces and abroad.

Course Venue: 14 Wing Greenwood Community Centre, Church Street Greenwood NS

Hours: 9.30 am – 5 pm

nancyceulemans@yahoo.co.uk 403 6073